Leamington jeweller selected for Chelsea Crafts Fair

April Stock, a young contemporary jeweller with a studio in Leamington Spa, has been selected to participate in Chelsea Crafts Fair 2004. Chelsea is Europe's finest craft fair, renowned for the high quality of the design and craftsmanship and diversity of exhibits. The prestigious fair, which celebrates its 25th anniversary this year, is organised by the UK Crafts Council and takes place in October at Chelsea Old Town Hall, London.

April will be showing a new collection inspired by the Regency architecture of her surroundings in Royal Leamington Spa. Development of the new collection was possible thanks to a grant from the Arts Council England. She works mainly in silver using presswork to create hollow pieces and, unusually, photo-etching. Her range includes pendants, brooches, earrings, cuff links and rings.

April shares a workshop with Jane Moore, the enameller, at Jane Moore Contemporary Jewellery in Leamington Spa. She is there as part of a scheme that Jane runs to help new graduate jewellers find their feet. Starting a business is never easy, especially in art and crafts, so this kind of assistance is invaluable: 'I'm so grateful to Jane and the Arts Council for their support', April said.

The workshop adjoins Jane's gallery where April helps out serving customers and liaising with other jewellers whose work is on display. 'Developing my collection here surrounded by others' work is so much more inspiring than being tucked away in a basement workshop at home. On top of which, I have had Jane's invaluable advice, and encouragement when the going has been tough.'

'It's very exciting to be taking part in Chelsea, I never expected it so early in my career.' Invariably Chelsea is packed out with buyers and collectors who come from all over the world to see the latest in contemporary fine crafts, and it is an excellent chance to get special commissions and to meet gallery owners. Apart from Chelsea, April is busy preparing for exhibitions at galleries around the country, including Glasgow, Brighton, Leeds, Bristol and Henley-in-Arden.

April will be on stand 70 at Chelsea Crafts Fair, Chelsea Old Town Hall, Kings Road, London SW3 during week 2 of the Fair, 19 to 24 October 2004. See www.craftscouncil.org.uk/chelsea2004 for more information.

April's work is also available from a range of contemporary jewellery galleries across the UK. Call 01926 332454, or see www.AprilStock.com for details.

About my work

Working mainly in silver, I create jewellery using the visual metaphor of the house. A house is an enclosed space, used to contain our lives and the things we collect. Home is hopefully a secure place, full of memories, and perhaps a place to escape the outside world.

I am very interested in architecture, and dolls houses. I am fascinated by my doorways and windows, the apertures of personal spaces, the way through from outside to inside... where will they lead? Children's stories and drawings are also a source of ideas.

I use the metaphor of house to create pieces about exploration and adventure, or to create pieces about safety and comfort. Recent work has been inspired by the Regency architecture of my current surroundings in Royal Leamington Spa.
